

Sign Broadway Actor to Fox Film

Broadway actor Patrick O'Neal signed to costar with Walter Matthau and Anne Jackson in "The Connecticut Look," produced by George Axelrod direct from his original screenplay for 20th Century-Fox, it was announced yesterday by Richard D. Zanuck.

O'Neal will portray a New York press agent whose wife, played by Miss Jackson, has a fleeting and hilarious affair with his movie-star client, portrayed by Academy Award-winning Matthau.

TOMMY STEELE: IT'S HARD TO TELL IF HE'S REALLY HUMAN OR ELF

Tommy Steele is the leprechaun who would be lingo. And lingo he will be, also Mercutio. The multi-talented young actor soon returns to London to join the Royal Shakespeare company and enlarge the already far-ranging scope of his natural endowments.

In a very short time he will have become wholly human in his role of Og the leprechaun in "Finian's Rainbow," the Warner Bros.-Seven Arts musical production, a role he plays with such zest and beguilement that Fred Astaire says he is beginning to believe in leprechauns. "At any rate, I believe in Tommy Steele," Astaire said, "and he's a leprechaun."

"Finian's Rainbow," directed by Francis Ford Coppola and produced by Joseph Landon, came to Steele, according to the director, "because nobody in the whole world could play it better."

This picture is Steele's third American film, his first being "The Happiest Millionaire," and the second being the unreleased "Half a Sixpence," the stage version of which brought him to America in the first place.

Besides his elfin performance in "Finian's Rainbow," he also sings and dances two of the hit numbers, "Something Sort of Grandish" with Petula Clark, and "When I'm Not Near the Girl I Love."

Club Plans Valley Dance

On Friday, the Wooden Key Club announced it will present its first "Full Moon Dance" at the Holiday Inn, 8244 Orion Ave., Van Nuys.

It was said that the event, for single adults, age 21-35, is expected to be as successful as their last outing which took place at the South Bay Country Club.

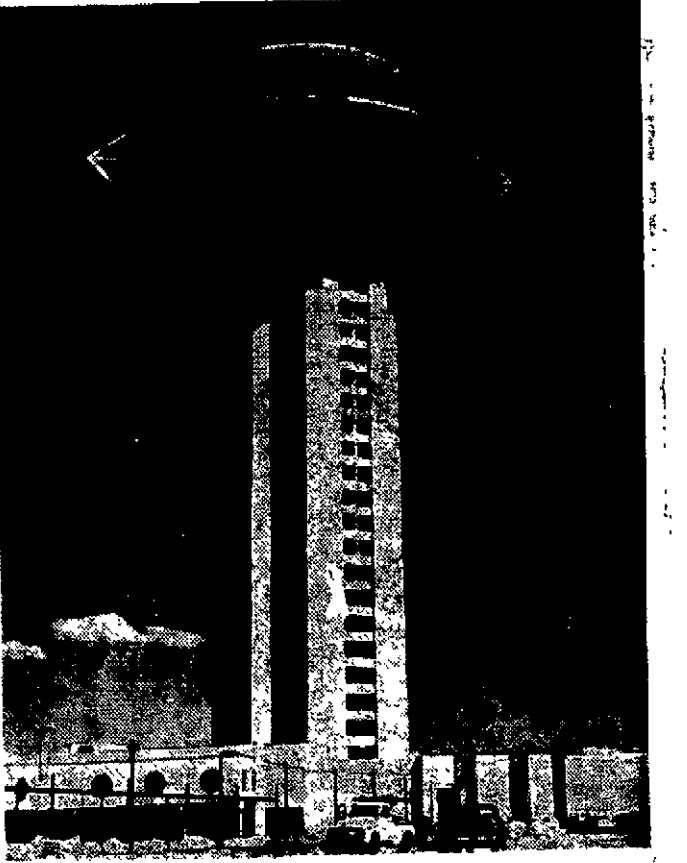

Doug Ammand, a Wooden Key Club representative, revealed that Friday's dance will once again feature The Roustabouts group.

Dress is informal, Coats and ties for the men and dresses for the women, said Ammand.

In a related announcement, it was reported that Dale Monroe, guitarist and singer of folk, modern and Calypso songs is now appearing at the Holiday Inn.

Monroe opened in the Inn's Tam O'Shanter Lounge last night and will entertain nightly except Sundays.

He has appeared in two motion pictures, on television and has performed at local night clubs, including Chadney's, Ye Little Club and The Losers.

NEARLY COMPLETED—Octagonal shaped Landmark Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas is being completed for Nov. 15 opening. Twenty-eight story structure was seven years in building. Three-story "bubble" on top will house casinos, restaurants featuring shows and dancing.

Landmark Hotel Delays Opening in Las Vegas

The Landmark Hotel and Casino, an octagonal $23,000,000 hotel rising 28 stories, this week revised its opening date to Nov. 15, a Las Vegas hotel executive announced.

Construction of the hotel, started seven years ago, was halted on several occasions, reportedly because of financial difficulties. Under normal conditions the hotel would have been completed in 1963.

Although it will open later this year, its grand opening is scheduled for New Year's Eve.

While there have been rumors as to what big name star will open the hotel, officials are not releasing any information "at this time" as to who will headline.
